Directions:

1. From Boulder, head west up Boulder Canyon.
2. The turnoff to Magnolia Road is about a mile past the tunnel.
3. Check your speedometer when you get on Magnolia Road and go exactly 7.9 miles to the entrance to the Kellogg Ranch on the left. You should see wooden signs that say "Kellogg Ranch" and some balloons.
4. Go down the side road about a half a mile, and then turn right when you see a fork in the road. A small wood sign saying "Kellogg" (and some balloons) will point the way. You will meander down a dirt road for another half mile until you get to a cattle gate which marks the entrance to the ranch. As you enter the ranch, you will see the main cabin on a small rise. Park in the meadow below cabin.
5. You can also get to the Kellogg Ranch by continuing up Boulder Canyon to Nederland. When you reach Nederland, turn left (south towards Black Hawk) on the Peak to Peak Highway and go about 2 miles. Go just past the Sundance Café and then turn left on Magnolia Road. The entrance to the Kellogg ranch is about 4 miles from the Peak to Peak Highway.
6. If you get lost, call 720-530-0702.
7. If you depend on Google maps, input 7877 Magnolia Drive, Nederland, to find the entrance to the ranch. You have to go another half mile to find the ranch.
